This year, Engineer's Week will have a competitive aspect to encourage student leadership and service, inspire student participation, provide opportunities for industry involvement, and foster a sense of teamwork and community. Specific rules are listed below. Prizes vary from gift cards to prizes sponsored by top tech companies. Specific prizes are also listed below. There will be prizes at the end of the week for the teams with the most points as well as prizes at events that involve competitions. Get ready for a week of meeting new people, making memories with friends, and winning great prizes!

Purpose of the competition
- Encourage leadership and service from clubs in the forms of attending events and helping out at events
- Increases collaboration between engineers of different majors
- Inspire students who aren't necessarily club members to participate and get involved
- Provide opportunities for companies to get involved in the forms of donations, prizes, and publicity
- Foster a sense of teamwork and community

Who can participate
- All events are open to students within the school of engineering and everyone i encouraged to participate.

The Competition

- This year the teams will take part in a bunch of activities/ competitions over the course of the week.
- The competition will have 2 types of teams:
  - Club teams
  - Student teams (not associated with any engineering club)
- The only difference between the two types of teams will be the prizes at the end. Everything else will stay the same throughout the competition.
- Points will be awarded for participating in the events and for finishing in the top three. A more detailed breakdown of points for each event is given in the points section below.
- The first competition will start on March 31st at the E-Week kick off dinner and will end on April 7th at the Engineering talent show.
- The last day to register a club team is midnight March 30
- The last day to register a student team is midnight April 3rd
- Students are free to participate in individual events if they do not wish to make a team for the entire competition and they do not need to register in that case. Just showing up at the event with all the the participants will suffice.

Teams
- Minimum 5
- Maximum 15

- 2/3rd of the members must be engineers
- 1 person can only be a part of 1 team
- Each club can have multiple team
- Team members don't necessarily have to be part of the same club

Prizes
- Prizes over $1500 will be given away during the entire duration of E-Week
- Top 3 club teams will be awarded prizes at the end of the competition
- Top student team will be awarded a prize at the end of the competition
- Prizes will be provided to the winner of every event
- More details about specific prizes coming soon

Points

	1st place	2nd place	3rd place	Participation
Popular Choice Award	40	30	20	10
Talent Show	50	35	25	15
MRS Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream Making Challenge	20	15	10	5
Watermelon Eating Contest	20	15	10	5
Cryptography Challenge	20	15	10	5
Gaming Tournament	20	15	10	5
Crossword Puzzle	20	15	10	5
Jeopardy	20	15	10	5
Egg Drop	20	15	10	5
Tug of War	20	15	10	5
#iamanengineer	20	15	10	5
Scavenger Hunt	20	15	10	5

- Host an event : 50 points
- Participation Points
  - Talent Show
    - Perform at the talent show
  - Popular Choice Award
    - Submit a picture with a caption
  - For all the other events
    - Minimum attendance of 3 at the event for at least 3 quarters of the entire duration of the event to qualify for this.
  - Teams are not eligible for participation points if they finish in the top 3
- Additional Points
  - Additional Points:

- Social Media: Post a pic on facebook with the hashgtags #ESUC #Eweek2016 #teamname to get 1 point.
- Each team can only get a maximum of 7 points every day in this category.
- The competition will start at 2 PM on Monday April 4th
- The competition will end at 8 PM on thursday April 7th
- The picture has to be taken at an Eweek event and each picture will only result in 1 point i.e. the same picture cannot be used by different people.
- You are however allowed to take post similar pictures as long as there is a way to verify that the 2 pictures were taken at separate instances.
- Points will only be given if the picture was posted by an eligible member of the team.
- One member will only be able to get 1 point for posting pictures in a day irrespective of the number of pictures posted by the member.
- The picture could be of anything at the event, including participants, objects, activity etc as long as there is a way to verify from the picture alone that it was taken at the event.
- Changing filters will not count as a different picture.